Sum of $165,000 Paid for Minor League Club

Inidanapolis, Ind., October 3.—The Indianapolis American Association basebail club was sold here late today by Sol Meyer, owner, to James G. McGill, George H. Wahlgreen and Jack Hendricks, of Denver. The purchase price, said to be $165,000, is declared to be the largest ever paid for a minor league organization.

The disposal of the franchise by Mr. Meyer comes after a year of futile effort to build up a winning aggregation.
